10 Strategies with Additional Information Links

http://jobsearch.about.com/od/findajob/tp/jobsearch-strategies.htm

- Stand Out from the Job Search Crowd
- Search for the Right Jobs
- Customize Your Resume and Cover Letter
- Use Your Network
- Rank Well on Google
- Job Search Where Companies Are Hiring
- Make Sure Companies Can Find You
- Ace the Job Interview
- Follow up After the Interview
- Job Search Strategies for Older Workers

Other Tips:
- Market Yourself
- Create & Live Your Brand
- Give Employers What THEY Need

William Penn University provides the opportunity for an educational experience with a focus on leadership, technology, and the Quaker principles of simplicity, peacemaking, integrity, community, and equality.
Job Search Strategies from Boston College

http://www.bc.edu/offices/careers/jobs/strategies/

Strategy 1: Identify promising organizations in your career field or industry, then visit their Web sites.

Strategy 2: Use networking contacts.

Strategy 3: Temp work leading to full-time employment.

Strategy 4: Career and job fairs.

Strategy 5: Internships and professional fellowships.

Strategy 6: Campus recruiting.

Strategy 7: Executive recruiters and placement agencies.

Strategy 8: Posting your resume to resume banks on the Internet.

Strategy 9: Long-Distance job search.

Strategy 10: Full-time post-graduate volunteer opportunities.

Long Distance Job Search Tips

- Identify the city or area in which you’d like to live.

- Visit company websites—nearly all towns and cities have a presence on the Internet through their Chamber of Commerce websites. By exploring the Chamber in a town or city in which you’d like to live, you can often click on links to any of the companies who have a Chamber membership—and sometimes all area businesses.

- Once you find companies that interest you, look for their link to their employment pages on the web. They may call it Employment or Career or Jobs or Work for Us.

- If you know someone in the city or area in which you’d like to live and work, start networking—even from afar. People you know may know other people who know the people you need to know to get a lead on a job opening. Networking is still the number one way employers try to fill jobs.

How to Use Social Media in Your Job Search

http://jobsearch.about.com/od/networking/a/socialmedia.htm

Are you LinkedIn? On Facebook? Using Twitter? Check out the above link for strategies on effectively using social media in your job search.

Tips from Top Human Resources Personnel

- Find a Mentor or a Set of Mentors
- Do Not Be Afraid to Ask for Assistance
- Know & Communicate Your Value to Employers
- Know Where You Want to Work; Network Your Way In!
- Be Passionate About What You Do
- Find a Place Where You Fit In
- Do a Principle-Based Job Search
- Network-Network-Network
- Work at Something You LIKE
- Collaborate & Connect
- Find Out What People Need – Do What You Can to Assist
- Be Different & Distinct