

Intramurals

Intramurals provide a wide array of activities, facilities, and social opportunities for WPU students and staff.

All participants must be current WPU members (students, faculty, and staff). All athletes must follow their program rules in regards to participation.

WPU Intramurals are about fellowship, cooperation, sportsmanship, and FUN!

Intramurals

The WPU Intramural Program seeks to provide a positive, safe outlet for fun and alternative forms of exercise and social interaction. Intramurals aim to stimulate the pure satisfaction of participation (fun, fitness, friendship, stress release, etc.). So come and try something new, meet someone new, and have some FUN!

About Intramurals

Intramurals bring another chance to create bonds within the community of William Penn University. Participants may choose from many different team and individual activities. Activities are organized for the enjoyment of the participants.

Intramural teams may be formed through common bonds or relationships within the community of William Penn University such as: fellow friends and classmates at WPU, residence halls, campus organizations (social and educational), or anyone without a team.

Intramural Goals

Intramurals at William Penn University have been designed to offer students an additional chance at physical and social interaction apart from their everyday commitments. Intramurals aim to support the academic mission of WPU while contributing to the excellence of campus life.

Intramurals provide the opportunity to develop and maintain healthy lifestyles while forming new connections with fellow students through social interaction and physical activity. These connections provide a sense of importance that will keep students engaged in diverse groups and lead to the support of student recruitment, retention, and development.

Intramural Activities

Intramural activities in the past have included:

- Ultimate Frisbee
- Yoga
- Badminton
- Indoor Soccer
- Dodge Ball
- Volleyball/Sand Volleyball
- Video Game Leagues/Tournaments
- Fantasy Sports Leagues

Let us know what you want to see in the future!
