

WILLIAM PENN UNIVERSITY ALMA MATER

Edited by Scott D. Stanton

Composed by Henry Edwin McGrew, President 1918-1941

Arranged by Aaron Adam, Class of '97

$\text{♩} = 96$

Loud ly let us sing the prais - es of the school we love so well,
Thou shalt be our al - ma ma - ter dear old Penn, we'll love thee long.

5

Of her glo - ries and her vir - tues ev - er more than tongue can tell.
From our hearts for - ev - er loy - al we will sing thy praise in song.

9

Glor - ious is her am - ple cam - pus clad in spring - time's rich - est green,
We will live in true de - vo - tion earn - est shall our ser - vice be.

13

Robed in white like er - mine blan - ket spark - ling clear in win - ter's sheen. be for thee, for thee.
Our en - dea - vor shall not wa - ver it shall