WILLIAM PENN UNIVERSITY

Limited Edition Art Print

Celebrating 140 Years

WILLIAM PENN UNIVERSITY • 1873-2013

William Penn University is proud to offer its first Limited Edition Commemorative Art Print.

This LIMITED EDITION DIGITAL PRINT, entitled "Heart of Penn", is a certified authentic reproduction created from an original watercolor painting by Marjorie Vande Wall from Oskaloosa, Iowa.

The painting was commissioned in 2013 to commemorate the 140th Anniversary of William Penn University. It depicts Penn Hall, located at 201 Trueblood Avenue, during early summer. The prairie-style building was built in 1916–17 and still stands proudly as the heart of the Oskaloosa campus.

Add this beautiful print to your collection—at home or the office. Only 140 prints and 14 Artist's Proofs (each inspected by Marjorie) are available. All of them are signed and numbered by the artist, and come with a Certificate of Authenticity. Contact us today to place your order!

About the Artist
Marjorie Vande Wall

Marjorie Vande Wall ('94) is an Oskaloosa native and William Penn alum who began teaching in the WPU Art Department in 1994. She has been involved in numerous aspects of the college community and currently serves as the Community College Liaison in Admissions.

Art has always been a part of Marjorie's life. Her interests take form through many types of media, from acrylics to watercolor and pottery to silver jewelry. Her community projects have included commissioned pencil drawings and a clay sculpture. She also creates the Tender Touches greeting cards.
